

CCRS PARTICIPANT'S AGREEMENT

Your responsibility as a CCRS Participant:

- It is your responsibility to be actively engaged throughout the programme.
- You should be both proactive and reflective in taking on responsibility for your own learning and development.
- To make sure fees are paid promptly.
- To acquire all the core course reading materials before the modules begin

Your role includes:

- Acting in a professional manner at all times.
- Attending all study days.
- Arriving on time for study days and remaining for the full length of the study days.
- Confirm your attendance at a module at least 2 weeks in advance.
- Reflecting on and analysing your own practice and development during the programme through discussion and assignments.
- Undertaking the reading, research and tasks you are set outside taught sessions, and coming to those sessions fully prepared so that you are able to take an active role.
- Completing and handing in all assignments and portfolios punctually.
- Taking part in reviews and evaluations of modules and the programme as a whole.

You Agree that:

- You will follow the requirements laid out above.

Applicant's Signature (or Initials if submitting via email)

Date